

I would like to let you know that the new ruling regarding faxes would significantly damage my opportunity to communicate with my clients. I do most of my communication via fax. The fax allows me to keep my client updated and also makes for easy record keeping. Please reconsider this terrible change to my business!!!